WELL-KNOWN COUPLE

Elope to Covington and Are Married There—Mr. Edward Silvers of Ripley and Miss Margaret Murray of Manchester Figure in a Pretty Romance.

The following clipping was taken from the Cincinnati Enquirer:

In quest of romance Miss Margaret Murray, daughter of John A. Murray, wealthy clothier, Manchester, Ohio, and Edward Silvers, son of J. R. Silvers, banker, Ripley, Ohio, eloped yesterday to Covington and were married there by Rev. C. W. Harrow.

Their escape was planned carefully, as Miss Murray boarded a train at Manchester for Cincinnati, and at Ripley Mr. Silvers got on the same train, "not knowing" his fiancée was aboard. To their "surprise," they met in Cincinnati and hurried to Covington.

Later they came to Cincinnati and registered at the Hotel Gibson. Miss Murray is a graduate of Glendale College. Her father is a direct descendant of the Earl of Murray and has a medal from Queen Victoria for his bravery at the Battle of Riddoway, during the Fenian raid. He belonged to the "Queen's Own" in Canada.

Mr. Silvers is a descendant of Colonel James Poage, Staunton, Va., founder of Ripley, and is a graduate of Staunton Military Academy, also studied at Case, Cleveland. Both families are widely known throughout Ohio and especially in Southern Ohio. The two made several other attempts to elope, but were prevented by the parents of Miss Murray.

Both of the young couple are well known in this city and have many friends here all of whom will be surprised to hear of their marriage.

DON'T FAIL

To attend the big Republican meeting at the Courthouse tonight.

The regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. W. Geisel, on Front street. All members come.

ASKS FOR DIVORCE

Mrs. Nina H. Knuffman of Cincinnati, has filed suit against her husband, Owen A. Knuffman, for divorce. Mrs. Knuffman was formerly Miss Nina Schaeffer of this city, a daughter of Mr. August Schaeffer.

The funeral of Mrs. John L. Willett, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Rohlf, at Helena, Thursday was held Saturday morning. Burial was made in Flemingsburg.

JOHN A. FOX

Former Superintendent of the Cincinnati Division of the C. & O. Railroad Dies at Clifton Forge, Va., Very Suddenly.

Word was received here last night of the sudden death of J. A. Fox, superintendent of the Clifton Forge division of the C. & O. railroad. Mr. Fox was well known in this city having visited here innumerable times during his term as superintendent of this division of the road.

Mr. Fox was about 58 years of age and had been connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio for nearly 33 years. He started as a fireman, was promoted to an engineer, then to road foreman of engines and finally to superintendent of a division. He started his career as a railroad man when living in Lexington, Ky., in which place he was born. He had been superintendent of several of the divisions of the road, the Ashland, the Cincinnati, the C. & O. of Indiana and the Clifton Forge.

Mr. Fox was one of the most popular officials of the railroad and he always found much favor with those under him. Only last week in Ashland he was presented with a fine gold watch by some of the men who had worked under him. Not only among the railroad men but everyone that had dealings with him respected him for his ability as a railroad man.

Mr. Fox is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Arabella Hedges. Two sons also survive. Notice of the funeral has not been received here as yet.

TOBACCO FAIR

Arranged For This City by the Special Events Committee of the Chamber of Commerce—Will Be Held Here November 30 to December 2.

The special events committee of the Chamber of Commerce has arranged for the holding of a Tobacco Fair and Corn Show to be held in this city on November 30, December 1 and 2, thus being on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Arrangements are now being made for a great exhibit of the products of Mason county's soil.

Secretary Boone of the Chamber of Commerce spent the day Saturday in Portsmouth, Ohio, learning just how to conduct such an exhibition, as Portsmouth every year holds a Korn Festival which proves very successful. He may also go to Ironton, Ohio, to learn of the Apple Show and to Huntington, W. Va., to take items from their Fall Festival. He will get many suggestions from the secretaries of like organizations in that city and the Maysville Tobacco Fair and Corn Show will be made all the better.

The celebration will be in the form of a big festival and the farmers of the county will be asked to display the products of their farms. The merchants will be asked to erect booths and display their line of goods to a certain extent. The exhibition will be held in one of the large tobacco warehouses in the city and will rival any such exhibition in the State of Kentucky.

Several hands will be present for the occasion as a large prize will be offered to the best band playing at the festival.

It is the plan of those having the arrangements for the fair in hand to make it one of the greatest things ever put across in this city. This will take the place of the preparedness parade that was to have been held on the Fourth of July in an entirely different form however. The fair will immediately precede the opening of the tobacco season in Maysville.

WILL SPEAK TONIGHT

Governor Halbert P. Gardner of Maine Will Appear Before the Voters of Mason County in the Court House Tonight in Behalf of the Republican Nominee for President.

The voters of Mason county will be given a chance to hear another of the great men of the country tonight when Governor Halbert P. Gardner of Maine will speak before them in the Court House at 7:30 o'clock.

Governor Gardner is one of the many prominent men in the country that are working for the election of Charles Evans Hughes for the presidency by presenting to the voters the reasons why the Republican party should be restored to the power in this country. He is a very forceful speaker and all who attend will not regret the time spent.

Special seats will be reserved for the ladies at the Courthouse tonight and they are all invited to attend.

HARVEST HOME SERVICE

The Rally Day and Harvest Home services were held in the Third Street M. E. Church Sunday morning and night. The church was decorated for the harvest home service and presented a very beautiful appearance. The decoration was the work of Major John Walsh. It was said by many to be the most beautiful decorations for many years in the church.

FORMER MAYSVILLE RESIDENT DIES

Mrs. Martha Powell, widow of S. R. Powell, died at her home in Covington last week, aged 82. Mrs. Powell was a resident of Maysville for a great number of years and is remembered by a number of Maysvillians. The burial was made in that city Saturday.

DIES FROM DIPHTHERIA

Russell Hickey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hickey of the Washington neighborhood, died Sunday of diphtheria. The boy was about four years of age. This is the second death from diphtheria in that family in the past week as the boy's brother died last week of the same disease.

HAND GOES TO VANCEBURG

The Blue Grass Concert Band of this city left this morning for Vanceburg where they will play for the political speaking of Governor Halbert P. Gardner in that city this afternoon. They will also play for the speech here tonight.

A report from Hayswood Hospital this morning is to the effect that Sheriff John Clarke, who was seriously injured on last Friday, spent a restful night and is improving rapidly.

MARRIAGES

Roe-Lee

Mr. Richardson H. Lee, 21, and Miss Wilma F. Roe, 20, both of Orangeburg, were married in this city Saturday by Rev. A. F. Stahl.

Dorsey-Gillespie

The nuptials of Mr. Cecil H. Gillespie of Cincinnati, and Miss Clarine Dorsey of Elizaville were celebrated at the home of Dr. and Mrs. G. M. Williams on Saturday afternoon, Rev. John Harbour performing the ceremony of union.

The beautiful flat was bright and attractive with a gay party of friends from Fleming county who came down to witness the happy event: Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cassidy, Mr. William Hirst, Miss Mabel Dorsey, sister of the bride, and two Misses Gillespie sisters of the groom.

After hearty congratulations to the handsome couple the party sat down to delicious refreshments prepared by the taste of Mrs. Williams, who is a relative of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie took the afternoon train for Cincinnati, where their home is to be.

SON KILLED

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Furlong of Fifth street yesterday afternoon received word of the death of their son, Andrew T. Furlong, at Sparks, Nev. No particulars of his death were stated except that he had been killed. His parents suppose that he was killed in a railroad wreck as he was an employee of the railroad at that place. The body will arrive here Thursday or Friday for burial.

LARGE CROWD IN TOWN

One of the largest crowds in this city for some time was here on Saturday. The streets were filled with country people and the talk of the men was divided between politics and how much tobacco they had raised this year.

To keep the little ones healthy and happy, their tender, sensitive bodies require a gentle, healing remedy. Hollister's Lucky Mountain Tea is mild and harmless, but thorough—just what the baby needs.—J. J. Wood & Son.

Seats reserved for ladies at the Courthouse tonight.

WILL GO TO LEXINGTON

At a teacher's meeting of the county held in County Superintendent Jessie O. Yancey's office it was learned that the County Board of Education had granted two days leave-of-absence to all teachers who were willing to make a trip to Lexington, Ky., on an inspection tour. They will leave Thursday of this week on the 7:50 train over the L. & N. for that city. The meeting was addressed by Dr. Blackberry a member of the State Board of Health, who gave a very interesting talk.

PLACE ORDERS FOR NEW CARS

The C. & O. Railroad has placed an order with the Pullman Company for ten new coaches, two parlor cars and one diner. They will be delivered as soon as possible.

HUGHES AND THE PAY ENVELOP

Hughes as governor of New York secured the semi-monthly payment of wages to railroad men.
No workman needs to be told how difficult it is for him to get along when he gets his pay only once a month. Until 1908 railroad employees in New York States had been paid only once a month, although the labor law provided in general that corporations and joint stock associations should pay their employees weekly; steam surface railroads were exempted from this provision and allowed to pay their employees only once a month. For years the representatives of railroad organizations or unions had been urging the Legislature to pass a law requiring that wages be paid semi-monthly. In 1908 the commissioner of labor, supported by the representatives of railroad employees vigorously supported a bill to this effect. Governor Hughes, signing the measure, filed with it the following memorandum:

"By the Labor Law it is provided that corporations and joint stock associations shall pay their employees weekly. Steam surface railroads, however, were exempted from this provision and permitted to pay monthly. This mitigates this discrimination by providing for a semi-monthly payment.
"It is urged that this change will cause the steam railroads some inconvenience and expense. But doubtless the present law occasions inconvenience and expense to other corporations who are not benefited by any exception. It is better that the present bill should become a law and suitable administrative arrangements be made to comply with it, than that the existing discrimination which can not be justified with due regard to the policy of the provision of the Labor Law, should be maintained."

The railroads opposed the enforcement of this act and took the matter to the courts. The general question involved was the power of the state to regulate the conduct of railroad corporations in respect to this subject. The case was fought through the New York Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals and was finally taken up to the Supreme Court of the United States, where it was upheld.

By an omission the penalty clause of the law had not been changed, so as to conform with the new clause requiring some-monthly payments. The penal code was changed in 1909 and the penalty was also changed by increasing the minimum fine from $25 to $100 and the maximum fine from $50 to $10,000.

This may sound like a small point and yet this act represents one of the greatest victories achieved by labor in many years. It freed the railroad employees from the real hardship of waiting for one month for their pay; and most important of all, it established once and for all the right of the state to interfere as between employer and employee and a protect and safeguard the interests of the worker.

THE PHYSIOLOGY OF POLITICS

The Hughes Campaign Service has received from Adelaide R. Hasse, Chief of the Documents Division of the New York Public Library, a statement of one great reason why an economist is for Hughes—because he knows the business of government.

I am for Charles Evans Hughes, the Republican candidate for President of the United States, because he interprets the issues for which the Republican Party stands, from the point of view of the trained lawyer.

Mr. Hughes believes that the problems of the twentieth century may be met with a minimum of waste, and a full appreciation of the value of business methods.

Mr. Hughes believes in regulation, so that the general public may be protected against exploitation, monopolistic practices and unjust discrimination.

Mr. Hughes believes in co-operation, whereby our agricultural interests may be promoted, together with an effective system of rural credits, whereby our national resources may be conserved, adequately developed, and used to the greatest public advantage.

Mr. Hughes believes in a national budget in order that the country may be saved from financial waste, and assured of administrative efficiency.

Mr. Hughes stands for the just interests of labor, keeping in mind that production and trade should be for the betterment of the lives of human beings. He believes in Federal workmen's compensation laws; in protection of women and children in industry; in increased opportunities for education and training.

Mr. Hughes believes in the urgent need of reform in judicial procedure, as stated in his address before the New York Bar Association January 14, 1916.

The President of the American Political Science Association in 1910, in an address before the Association on the "Physiology of Politics," made the following statement:—"All reform movements... need advice from people who are really familiar with the actual working of many political institutions. In short they need men with a scientific knowledge of the physiology of politics."
I am for Mr. Hughes because I believe he has such knowledge.—Adelaide R. Hasse.

FULL OF IDEAS

Mothers and children of New York's East Side are to make a pilgrimage to Shadow Lawn "to thank President Wilson for social legislation." The Democratic National Committee certainly is resourceful and full of ideas.—Kansas City Star.

WHERE'S THE MUCHROOM ARMY?

When Colonel Bryan stumps the country will he kindly give further particulars about those 1,000,000 American soldiers springing to arms in a day?

Mr. Wilson says he will not attack Mr. Hughes on the stump. Maybe he is going to send him a couple of firm but friendly notes?

The Democratic campaign text book has 480 pages, and yet they didn't have room to say anything about that single-term plank.

HUGHES OF PAST IS HUGHES OF PRESENT

Washington, October 14.—The Republican Publicity Association through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., today gave out the following statement at its Washington Headquarters: "Probably the most ardent supporter of Woodrow Wilson and the most bitter opponent of Hughes is the New York World, the leader of the Democratic press. In view of its present partisan reasons, every American voter, of whatever party, should read that paper's estimate of Hughes and his work in the past. The following are excerpts from the columns of that paper during the period of its ownership and control by the late Mr. Pulitzer, who requested in his will that Mr. Hughes serve as a trustee of his estate, a position which Mr. Hughes declined:

Quotations From the New York World
"September 18, 1905—'Hughes' Admirable Work.' 'His admirable work as Counsel for the Gas Investigating Committee justified the people in accepting from him equally meritorious service as Counsel for the Insurance Investigating Committee. The public has not been disappointed in Mr. Hughes. He has justified every expectation. The World doubts if any legislative investigation in the history of the State was ever conducted with more ability or more acutely or more rationally. It is evident that Mr. Hughes is going to the very bottom of insurance corruption, and that when he has finished, the policy holders and the people will know for the first time how these great corporations are managed.'

"October 7, 1905—'The Republican Ticket.' 'The Republican ticket is one to appeal to the intelligence rather than to the emotions. His conduct of the gas investigation last spring was masterly. Mr. Hughes' conduct of the legislative investigation of insurance corruption is part of the history of the day; it has attracted the attention of the entire country.

October 8, 1905—'Charles E. Hughes.' 'His nomination for Mayor, first suggested by the World, reflects credit upon the Republican City campaign. The extraordinary service Mr. Hughes has rendered to the cause of truth and justice in awakening the moral sense of the nation against crimes of cupidity and of trust betrayed, must make a far search for a parallel. He represents... opposition to the corruption to the corruption of business; of embezzlement to one-man rule in financial and commercial affairs; and of implacable hostility to financial crimes. In the interest of public and general welfare the World hopes that Mr. Hughes will accept.'

October 10, 1915—'A Man Like Hughes.' 'The sacrifice was too great. The World regrets that Mr. Hughes is not free to make the race, but neither alters by one iota the basic fact.... The Mayor of New York ought to be of the Hughes type. He would let light into all the dark and secret and festering places of loot and plunder. He would drive grafters and parasites from the City Hall. He would destroy the alliance between the public-service corporations and the City government. There would be no McAdams; there would be a better police department and better protection to homes. New York needs such a Mayor.'

"October 11, 1905—'He still Hughes to the line, let the chips fall where they may.'

"October 4, 1906—'Mr. Hughes and the Independents.' (In re-acceptance speech when nominated for Governor.)—'Mr. Hughes' personal force shows in every line of his speech. He is explicit and emphatic in what he says and he shall not be done after he is elected governor. He deals in nine of the politicians over-promises or the demagogues cheap phrases. He has the power to convince men that the boss need expect nothing from him. 'No individuals,' he declares, 'or group of individuals and no private interest will be permitted to dictate my policy. I shall decide and act according to my conscience and as I believe the public interest requires.... Mr. Hughes' strength is in the appeal he makes to the intelligence and common sense of independent voters. For this appeal he is well equipped by his character, his training, and his record.... The World shares in his faith in appealing to 'the common sense of the American people, which has never failed to express itself decisively in a great crisis.'

"October 6, 1906—'Mr. Hughes' positive methods as a reformer are known to all men. He dealt with insurance corruption and high-finance crookedness as relentlessly as he now unmask office seeking demagogues. His record is to be read in the statutes passed at Albany.'

"October 8, 1906—'Mr. Hughes on the Stump.' 'He has appealed not as a partisan to partisans but as a citizen to citizens. The addresses of the scholarly lawyer have been simple and straightforward, strong in sincerity, effective in earnestness.'

"October 11, 1906—'Mr. Hughes said (in his Buffalo speech, October 10, '06) he would endeavor to have more money appropriated to enforce labor laws.... The laws should be enforced cost what enforcement may. Mr. Hughes promises nothing that he cannot and will not perform.'

"October 12, 1906—'When Mr. Hughes promises to give the people of New York a clean, honest administration, free from boss rule and corporate influence, they can accept his word.... His record is that of a man who keeps his word faithfully and scrupulously. When has he ever broken a public promise or repudiated a public pledge?'

"October 29, 1906—'Roosevelt For Hughes.' 'No one who knows how strong the Presidents (Roosevelt) great fight against corporate abuse has made him with his countrymen, can doubt that his manly declaration will be to Mr. Hughes also as a tower of strength.'

"June 3, 1907—'Governor Hughes has rendered a highly meritorious service not only to New York but to the nation. The credit for the Utilities bill belongs largely to him. He initiated the measure and checked the general plan of supervision. It was his frank and convincing appeals to public opinion that forced the hand of a reluctant legislature. It was his unyielding courage that prevented a disastrous compromise. It is only five months since Mr. Hughes became chief executive of New York. The World cannot believe, in the light of the events of those five months, that there are many voters left in the State who would wish that the issue of the election had resulted otherwise than it did.'

"June 6, 1907—(In re Special Message to Legislature—Direct Primaries, etc.)—'Governor Hughes' Votes.' 'Taking them as a whole it would be difficult to overpraise Governor Hughes' veto messages. In their courage, lucidity and common sense, and concise statement of fundamental principles, they are State papers that deserve the study of every other governor of the country.

"Mr. Hughes vetoed the two-cent-fare bill on the ground the rate fixed was arbitrary; that there had been no investigation of the facts; and that the Public Utilities Act created a commission with full power to fix a two-cent-fare rate in all cases where such a rate would be just and reasonable.

"He vetoed the Teacher Salary Bill and special legislation interfering with local city governments on the ground that 'if legislatures intended to apply equal pay for equal work,' the application should be general and not confined to a single class of women employees in a single city of the State.... Gov. Hughes is bringing the State government back to first principles, and his veto messages deserve to be published as a text-book on the true functions of the legislature.'

"June 22, 1907—'Henry Waterson tells an Indiana interviewer, 'In my opinion Gov. Hughes is the most available man the Republicans can nominate, and the trend is all toward him. He is saying little but is attending strictly to business and is making a record as a very efficient governor.'

"Mr. Hughes is indeed attending strictly to business. That is why New York could ill afford to spare him, even to have him become President of the United States.... The best check upon Federal usurpation is the kind of State government that makes such usurpation indefensible. This is the work that Mr. Hughes is doing for the Nation. He is more than Governor of New York. He is a college for the instruction of all other Governors in the powers, duties and responsibilities of State administration.... Mr. Hughes would make a good President. That goes without saying. But New York cannot spare him.'

"June 27, 1907—(At close of legislative session)—'The record as a whole is creditable to the legislature. It is highly creditable to Governor Hughes, whose tact and patience and moderation, whose courteous and careful regard for his constitutional limitation, have contributed very materially to the result. His policy has been in a large degree followed. His pledges have been kept. His voice has led, instructed and directed the giant power of public opinion.'

"January 2, 1908—'Among all the Governors of the forty-six states Mr. Hughes holds a unique position as to power, influence, and opportunity. His insurance reforms have already been adopted by a large number of states. His public service commission is a model from which other states are shaping their legislation. Other Governors are adopting his ideals and methods of public service. He is setting an example which is destined profoundly to affect all state and local governments in this country for the future.'

WOMAN WEAK, RUN-DOWN

Finds Health in Simple Tonic

People in Maysville will begin to believe us when we say that our delicious Vinol is a wonderful tonic and strength creator.

Here is another case where it has proved its wonderful power to overcome weak run-down, nervous, anemic conditions.

"I was run-down, nervous, and could not do my work without being entirely exhausted, and would often faint without any apparent cause. The doctor said I was anemic but failed to help me. My husband brought home a bottle of Vinol and I began to improve after taking one bottle, and after taking four bottles it has built me up so I can do all my housework without help. I recommended Vinol to a neighbor, who says her doctor approves of it and said 'Vinol is a wonderfully good tonic.' Mrs. Beale Hering, West Philadelphia, Pa.

We recommend Vinol to our customers as the greatest strength creator we know—due to the beef and cod liver peptones, and glycerophosphates, all contained in Vinol. John C. Pecor Drug Co., Maysville. Also at the leading drug store in all Kentucky towns.

governments in this country for the next generation, provided he is left to finish his task.'

"March 25, 1908—'Governor Hughes was well advised when he vetoed the two-cent-fare bill. This state has started upon the right way to regulate its corporations and Minnesota and North Carolina started the wrong way.

"May 1, 1910—'Governor Hughes has probably less ego in him than any other really big man in public life. He is so exacting in himself that he looms small in self-estimation compared with the public's estimation.'

"May 3, 1910—'Hughes and the Trusts.' 'For his distinguished and conspicuous service and success in securing better control of 'great trust corporations.' Governor Hughes need not fear comparison with any man of his time, however exalted in place or however heavily armed with political power.'

"May 28, 1910—'Direct Primary.' 'The Direct Primary is the Governor's own issue. He was the first to make it a practical question in New York politics.... Another defeat cannot make the future of direct nominations more precarious. At the worst the legislative situation remains as it is. But the spectacle of Mr. Hughes' dignity in the last for a great principle of representative government is worth much no matter whether a direct nomination bill is passed or not. Its effect upon public opinion cannot easily be overestimated. While he remains Governor, it is his duty to employ all the power and influence of his office to re-establish representative government in this State. The World is glad to find that he has not faltered.'

"June 25, 1910—'Governor Hughes did not object to the Federal income tax in principle, but to the phrasing of the amendment.'

HUSBAND SAVED HIS WIFE

Stopped Most Terrible Suffering by Getting Her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Denison, Texas.—'After my little girl was born two years ago I began suffering with female trouble and could hardly do my work. I was very nervous but just kept dragging on until last summer when I got where I could not do my work. I would have a chill every day and hot flashes and dizzy spells and my head would almost burst. I got where I was almost a walking skeleton and life was a burden to me until one day my husband's step-sister told me I would not last long and told her to get my medicine. So she got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me, and after taking the first three doses I began to improve. I continued its use, and I have never had any female trouble since. I feel that I owe my life to you and your remedies. They did for me what doctors could not do and I will always praise it wherever I go.'—Mrs. G. O. LOWERY, 419 W. Monterey Street, Denison, Texas.

If you are suffering from any form of female ill, get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and commence the treatment without delay.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

DR. HARVEY W. WILEY

To Vote For Hughes—He Says Wilson Has Failed to Enforce Pure Food Law.

"I favor the election of Mr. Hughes to the Presidency for entirely different reasons than those held by most of his supporters. It is not because of the Mexican policy nor the foreign policy of the Administration nor by reason of its domestic policies. It is because of the apparent indifference of the Administration of President Wilson to the cause of pure food and drugs. Practically all of the abuses which were injected into the Pure Food Law by the preceding Administration are still in force. Benzoin of soda is still rampant. The fumes of burning sulphur are marching along undisturbed. There is evidently a lull in the activities of the Administration of the law. A well-known beverage, declared by the Supreme Court misbranded and amendable to the Food Law has not been molested. No attempt has been made to enforce the law in regard to the bleaching of flour. The repeal of the mixed flour law, that splendid safeguard to the purity of our bread, has been tacitly approved by the Treasury Department.

"Mr. Hughes in his activities on the Supreme Court has stood like a stone wall for the proper Administration of the Food Law. I believe his election would see a radical change in the attitude of the government towards pure food and pure drugs, so vital to the welfare of our people. For this reason, I sincerely hope that Mr. Hughes may be chosen as our next President.

"I should expect Mr. Hughes as President to have the same attitude toward the pure food and drug law that he had as a judge on the bench and to appoint a secretary of agriculture with subordinate officers who would be enthusiastic and earnest in the enforcement of the pure food law for the benefit of the physical, mental and moral welfare of our people."

THIRD ANNUAL RURAL CHURCH INSTITUTE

The Third Annual Rural Church Institute of the Kentucky Christian Bible School Association will be held at the Fox Creek Church, Anderson county, near Lawrenceburg, October 23, 27, 1916. Much attention has been given recently to the study of rural life problems, and Institutes of this sort are full of interest to a great many. Former Institutes were held at Providence in Jessamine county and North Middleton in Bourbon county. The last named had over 600 in attendance, half of whom were out-of-town delegates.

A strong program has been prepared for the Fox Creek Institute. Mr. Oscar E. Kelley, of Terre Haute, Indiana, a successful Rural Church specialist and prominent lecturer, will be present to give ten lectures and to lead in the discussions on the rural church. Other speakers will be W. J. Clarke of Cincinnati, Adult Superintendent of the American Christian Missionary Society; H. W. Carpenter, Chancellor of Transylvania University, Lexington; A. McLean of Cincinnati, O., president of the Foreign Christian Missionary Society; H. W. Elliott of Sulphur who will present the Kentucky Rural Church; Prof. C. D. Bohannon of the State University, Lexington; and other leaders prominent in rural work.

The Fox Creek people assisted by others in Anderson county will give free entertainment in their homes for the full five days to one hundred delegates. They are enthusiastically preparing for this great occasion and have given assurance that a warm welcome awaits all who will come. All those coming to Lawrenceburg by rail will be met at the station and taken directly to Fox Creek by a committee that will provide free transportation. Already reservations for entertainment have been made by a number for the full five days, and the prospect for a large attendance is very good.

TINIEST ENGRAVING

(Grand Rapids Cod, New York Sun) Godfrey E. Lundberg, of Spokane, Wash., has engraved the Lord's Prayer, containing 66 words, a total of 254 letters, as well as 17 punctuation marks, on the head of a gold pin forty-seven thousandths of an inch in diameter. He also has inscribed the letters "U. S." on the point of a fine cambric needle.

Maurice Lundberg, brother of the engraver, brought the two engraved articles here. They have been exhibited before the Mayor, city and county officials. When placed under a 100 diameter microscope the letters stand out boldly and can be read more easily than newspaper type.

The two articles will be placed in a New York museum for exhibition. Lundberg explained that three years were required to complete the Lord's Prayer.

Elm trees have been known to live six hundred years. This tree is said to be in its prime at the age of 150 years.

A MAYSVILLE INQUIRY

Answered by the State of a Maysville Resident.

When first the long series of reports of Maysville people who have been relieved by Doan's Kidney Pills were published in the local press, great enthusiasm and interest were aroused. But Maysville is now inquiring "How are these people keeping today? How has the benefit they received withstood the test of time?" For that, after all, is the essential test of a cure. On this point doubt can no longer exist, for after many years those who have been cured, emphatically declare their cures to be lasting.

Frederick Dresel, 1233 E. Second St., Maysville, says: "I was troubled with inflammation of the bladder and an annoyance from my kidneys. The passages of the kidney secretions were irregular and I had a severe pain across the small of my back, which interfered with my duties. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Wood & Son's Drug Store and one box gave me prompt relief."

NO TROUBLE SINCE OVER THREE YEARS LATER, Mr. Dresel said: "I haven't had any kidney trouble since I used Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Dresel has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Special Election Notice

In obedience to an order of the Mason County Court, entered at the September term, 1916, notice is hereby given that an election will be held and poll taken in Mason county, Kentucky, at the usual and regular voting places in each of the precincts, on TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1916.

Between the hours of 6 o'clock, a. m., and 4 o'clock, p. m., on said date, at which election all legal voters residing in said precincts, shall be given an opportunity to vote by secret ballot on the question whether the Fiscal Court of Mason county shall be composed of three Commissioners to be elected from the county at large and the Judge of the County Court.

The order calling said election specifying its purpose and directing the manner in which same shall be held, is as follows:

MASON COUNTY COURT.
September Term, September 4, 1916.
Alfred M. Peed, et al., On Petition.

ORDER

This day came Alfred M. Peed and others and filed a written petition signed by eight hundred and forty-one of the legal voters of Mason county, requesting the Judge of the Mason County Court to submit to the qualified voters of Mason county at the next general election hereafter to be held the question, "whether the Fiscal Court of Mason county shall be composed of three Commissioners, to be elected from the county at large, and the Judge of the County Court," and it appearing that said petition is signed by more than three hundred and fifty of the legal voters of Mason county, and the court being advised, it is therefore ordered and directed that the officers of the election in all the voting precincts in Mason county shall open a poll and take the sense of the legal voters in said county upon said question, said election to be held on Tuesday, November 7th, 1916, between the hours of 6 a. m., and 4 p. m. The Clerk of the Mason County Court shall furnish the Sheriff of Mason county a copy of this order, and said Sheriff shall cause the same to be published in all the county papers not less than four weeks previous to said election and he shall also advertise the same by printed handbills, posted not less than two weeks before said election in a conspicuous place in each of the voting precincts in said county. It is further ordered and directed that the Clerk of the Mason County Court shall prepare ballots to be used at said election, each ballot to have printed thereon the question: "ARE YOU IN FAVOR OF THE FISCAL COURT OF THE COUNTY BEING COMPOSED OF THREE COMMISSIONERS TO BE ELECTED FROM THE COUNTY AT LARGE AND THE JUDGE OF THE COUNTY COURT?"

Given under my hand, at my office, in the City of Maysville, Mason county, Kentucky, this 30th day of September, 1916.

JOHN H. CLARKE,
Sheriff of Mason County.

hibited before the Mayor, city and county officials. When placed under a 100 diameter microscope the letters stand out boldly and can be read more easily than newspaper type.

The two articles will be placed in a New York museum for exhibition. Lundberg explained that three years were required to complete the Lord's Prayer.
